

Rev. Tiffany Elliott is a dynamic evangelist who ministers in churches, revivals and women's conferences proclaiming the uncompromising Word of God through anointed praise and worship and inspired preaching.

Tiffany is the assistant director of West Virginia Christian University where she teaches a variety of Biblical Study Courses. She released her debut album "I Will Never Leave You" in May 2007 and is already getting national attention. She has appeared on Daystar Network Television and her songs can be heard on several radio stations in MD, WV and PA.

Minister Elliott has a rich heritage of music from her childhood singing with her parent's singing group from age three. While attending Alderson Broaddus College she was a member of the singing group "The West Virginians". She has had several years of professional vocal training from which she blends the musical styles of jazz, blues, classical, country and black gospel to create a unique and fresh new sound. Her wide range and versatility provide avenues of enjoyment for all who listen. Because of her strong faith in God's Word she sings every note with confidence and authority.

Tiffany has an equally rich background in the Word of God. At the age of thirteen she felt the call of God to the five-fold ministry. Growing up as a P.K. (preacher's kid), she is no stranger to the needs within churches and has served in almost every area of help ministry at some time in her life.

She speaks forth the Word with power and authority allowing the presence of God to manifest often being used in the gifts of the Spirit. The evangelist's anointing is present by the Holy Spirit to bring sinners to repentance and backsliders back to God with a strong message of reconciliation. The Lord is using her testimony to break the chains of condemnation that many in the body face due to shame and guilt of their past.

Rev. Elliott says, "I have a strong desire to see Christians utilize their full potential in God and complete the destiny God has designed for them".

Tiffany graduated from college with a B.A. in communications and theater. She also graduated from Life Christian University, with a B.A. in Christian Theology.

The Spirit of the Lord was upon Jesus as he ministered from the book of Isaiah, "...he hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor; he hath sent me to heal the brokenhearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised..." This too is the mission of Tiffany Elliott Ministries, to see lives changed through the anointed Word and Song.

Tiffany is married to Brian Elliott a financial advisor with Edward Jones. He also is being used in the body of Christ to encourage fellow believers how to live in financial freedom. In 2003 they were blessed with twin Boys Aaron and Austin. They are highly active in ministry at their home church, The Way of Holiness, located in Buckhannon, West Virginia.
